

IMPERFECT

Leonie Martine Janssen

The Imperfect furniture collection, created from a fascination for the human body, is a translation of body-topology. Fat legs, thin waist, big breasts, muscular arms, round bellies and broad hips, the differences are endless. For everything we see in the world around us, we have a 'perfect' image in mind, an appearance whereto we aspire. Instead of searching for perfection, this collection of male and female shaped furniture shows the beauty of different proportions; the beauty of imperfection.
