Jasper van Grootel

Imagine yourself taking a ride in a magical carroussel, with nothing but sparkling light around you. Designer Jasper van Grootel envisioned himself in this beautiful moment when he designed the Myllennia ring light. By both classical and modern elements, this design will enhance private or public spaces and through it's different sizes it fits any venue. The sparkling light from the Myllennia collection brings a heavenly feeling with it. Available in seven standard anodized colours.
